Welcome to NetCon23!

What a joy it is to welcome you for these days together as we celebrate our 84th Annual Network Conference for New Mexico! If this is your first time to join us, or if you've been part of our Network family for many years, we're really glad you're here!

We are so grateful and thrilled to be back at Casa Del Rey this week. Pastor Ruben and Nellie Guajardo and their team are always amazing hosts.

It's always great when we come together to reconnect, to enjoy love and laughter with one another, to meet new friends, and to experience incredible times of worship, prayer, and ministry. Thanks so much for joining us this week...I know we're going to have an amazing time together!

I pray that you have come to NetCon23 with some God-sized expectations! Can you imagine what can happen while we're together if we will simply make room for God, God's voice, God's presence, God's power to be manifest in our lives?

We are so honored and blessed to have Assistant General Superintendent Rick Dubose and his wife Rita with us! These are dear friends of New Mexico and I know that God is going to use them to powerfully to minister to us this week.

So let's do this! Let's draw near to God. Let's make room for Him. And as we do this, God will do amazing things among us!

Micheal Dickenson
Network Pastor

Pastors,

2022 was our greatest year ever for both BGMC and STL! I want to thank every church that chose to be a part of teaching the next generation how to have the heart of generosity. I believe that, if we will teach the next generation how to give, we will see true revival happen because generosity is the heart of our God!
